DETAILED ACTION

Election/R strictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-20, drawn to a method for etching a dielectric layer, classified in class 438, subclass 689+.
 - II. Claims 21-22, drawn to a coated substrate, classified in class 430, subclass 27, 56+.
 - III. Claim 23, drawn to composition of hard mask, classified in class 520, subclass various.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions of Group I and II, III are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case a process of etching a dielectric layer can be practiced utilizing the radiation absorbing or antireflective coating layer of different composition, such as titanium nitride or oxynitride antireflective layers, which does not include an organic substrate.
3. Inventions of Group II and III are related as mutually exclusive species in an intermediate-final product relationship. Distinctness is proven for claims in this relationship if the intermediate product is useful to make other than the final product (MPEP § 806.04(b), 3rd paragraph), and the species are patentably distinct (MPEP §

Art Unit: 1746

806.04(h)). In the instant case, the intermediate product represented by Group III is deemed to be useful for making chromophore coatings, utilizing in photocurable adhesives and the inventions are deemed patentably distinct since there is nothing on this record to show them to be obvious variants. Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions anticipated by the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

4. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

5. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group I is not required for Group II and III, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

6. Claims 1, 4, 21, 23 are generic to a plurality of disclosed patentably distinct species comprising inorganic elements selected from periodic table, Group IIIa, IVa, Va, VIa, VIIa, Ib, IIb, IIIb, IVb, or Vb. Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species, even though this requirement is traversed.

7. Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention. A telephone call was made to Mr. P. Corless, Esq., on November 20 and 21/2000 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
